KEEPING COVENANT

Sermon notes from 10/8/06

Deuteronomy 10:12-22

Rev. Douglas D. Warren

Deuteronomy stresses God's faithfulness as our covenant-keeping King and urges His people to obey Him with all our minds, hearts, and souls as we await the prophet greater than Moses.

Section

1-3 Judgment Belongs to the Lord, our God. Entering the Promised Land

4-6 The People Belong to the Lord, our God.

7-10 The Whole Earth Belongs to the Lord, our God.

7:1-26 His Enemies—Objects of Wrath (7:6, 26)

8:1-20 Reprobate Israelites likewise shall be destroyed too (8:20)

9:1-6 The Lord—A Devouring Fire (9:3)

9:7-10:11 Example of Israel's stiff-necked nature (9:7)

10:12-22 Heart and soul of covenant (10:14)

11-25 God joins with His people in covenant with both blessings & curses.

Key Verse

"To the LORD your God belong the heavens, even the highest heavens, the earth and everything in it." Deuteronomy 10:14

Message

I. What Should We Do?

II. Why Should We Do It?

III. How Can We Do It?

Application

Please consider the following questions as you seek the Holy Spirit's direction:

1. Is there anything that we can do to deserve God's love?
2. What does God say should be the basis for our love for Him?
3. How does His faithfulness to His promises give me hope when I fail?
